

I strongly support XM Radio and very much appreciate everything they do. Local broadcasters should compete based on service. That is what our free market is about. This competition will result in better service for all. Please do not stifle the innovation process that is making life for everyone better.
Ross McNutt